Welcome Home

Dr. W. Maxfield Garrott, our co-pastor, who attended the Ridgecrest, North Carolina Conference arrived home on July 1. We are happy to welcome him back again.

Y.P.C.F.

High School and Seniors will have a joint meeting, beginning at 7:30 this evening to hear reports of the Gulfport, Mississippi Girl Reserve Conference from Mrs. Hunter and others who were in attendance.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Our speaker next Sunday will be Dr. J. B. Hunter, assistant project director of our center. Our Jerome friends are particularly anxious to hear him.

Thirty-four attended the first practice of our summer choir, under the direction of Miss Margaret Cheek. We were glad to have so many young ladies and we earnestly hope men will turn out for s econd practice on Tuesday evening. It will be held at 7:00 o'clock because of the Carnival activities.

Miss Janet Smith and Miss McCrory, former missionaries to Japan, who have been living in Dermott and helping with the church work in Jerome center are moving to McGehee, and will help now with the w ork in our own center.

Mr. Robert Blood, who is working under our Center C. A. for six weeks will be the main speaker this Wednesday evening. Mr. Blood is a student at Yale University.

Singspiration will be led by Miss Margaret Cheek who is also with our C. A. and is a graduate of Yale University. Please tell your Jerome friends. Church office at 8 p.m.
